Cape Verdean Connection

Betsy Lambert
Miscoe Hill School
Grades 6–8
Unit Overview

This unit highlights the long-standing relationship between the people of the Blackstone Valley and greater New England area and the Cape Verdean people. Carefully selected documentation demonstrates some of the ways in which the Cape Verdean people, as they moved beyond their original geographic borders, have impacted the Blackstone Valley region. The varied learning experiences activate and utilize students' different multiple intelligences, while providing intellectual challenges at multiple levels of cognitive complexity. Modifications for language or special needs are included with each lesson, as are links to historical background, additional resources, and reference materials.
Standards

Standards addressed in this unit:

- Rhode Island Grade Span Expectations for Civics & Government and Historical Perspectives
  5 (5-6)-1, 5 (7-8)-1, 5 (5-6)-2, 5(7-8)-2
  Also check RI ELA standards and Art

- Massachusetts History and Social Science Curriculum Framework 6.1, 6.2, 6.3, 6.4, 6.5, Mass
  United States History Themes: #3
  Also check ELA standards and US History 1 standards and Art
Objectives

- The documents and activities contained in this unit are intended to help students better understand the historic relationship that exists between the people of New England and Cape Verdes, and appreciate the varied contributions of Cape Verdean people to the Blackstone Valley and region.
- Students will be able to relate ways in which the Cape Verdean people, as they moved beyond their original geographic borders, have impacted the economic, political, religious, and cultural ideas of the Blackstone Valley and our region.

Lesson/Activity #1: Cape Verdean Geography
Standards: Massachusetts Social Studies Standards Grade 6.2 6.3, 6.4, 6.5
Rhode Island C&G 5 (5-6) – 1

Performance Objective: Students will demonstrate knowledge of the location, climate and demographics of the Cape Verdean Islands and Providence, RI.

Materials: white paper 8 1/2X 11, chart paper, markers, world maps, world atlases.

Time Needed: 60 minute class period

Detailed Procedure:
Step 1 Students draw a world map on a blank 8 ½ x 11 piece of paper without using any reference materials. Include and label: 7 continents, 4 oceans, equator, prime meridian, tropic of cancer, tropic of Capricorn, 4 hemispheres, compass rose, Providence, Rhode Island, and Cape Verdes.

Step 2a Students draw a world map on a blank 8 ½ x 11 piece of paper using reference material. Include and label: 7 continents, 4 oceans, equator, prime meridian, tropic of cancer, tropic of Capricorn, 4 hemispheres, compass rose, Providence, RI, and Cape Verdes.

2b Students use reference materials to create a comparative chart that displays the demographics (population, religion, linguistic group), location (longitude and latitude), and climate data (average rainfall, temperature) for the two locations.

Step 3 Students work with a partner to create a colorful world map on chart paper without using reference materials. Include and label: 7 continents, 4 oceans, equator, prime meridian, tropic of cancer, tropic of Capricorn, 4 hemispheres, compass rose, Providence, RI, and Cape Verdes.

Step 4 Students draw a world map on a blank 8 ½ x 11 piece of paper without using any reference materials. They are given the checklist below to use as a guide as they include and label: 7 continents, 4 oceans, equator, prime meridian, tropic of cancer, tropic of Capricorn, 4 hemispheres, compass rose, Providence, RI, and Cape Verdes. Students use the chart created in step 2b to incorporate color or symbols to indicate average rainfall, temperature, population, and the dominant ethnic group, linguistic group and religious group of Providence and Cape Verde.
This will be graded using the checklist below:

Step 5: Using think-pair-share, students will individually create a compare and contrast graphic organizer to describe the location, climate and demographics of Providence, RI and Cape Verdes. Next, each student will work with a partner to create a joint graphic organizer. Finally, the class will create a graphic organizer that includes everyone’s input. Students copy the class graphic organizer.

Homework: Using the class generated graphic organizer, students will compose a paragraph which compares and contrasts the location, climate and demographics of Providence and Cape Verde.

Reference materials: http://www.mapsofworld.com/

Extensions:
1. Include New Bedford, MA, as that was another destination point for many Cape Verdean immigrants.
2. Add trade winds and shipping lanes to the world map
3. Investigate climate extremes of both places: what seasonal changes did each location face?
4. Investigate the hurricane history of each location.
5. Investigate the geological history of each location.
6. Learn more about the demographics of each area: ethnic groups, educational level, income level, other languages spoken, etc.

Modifications are intentionally broad for you to adapt to your individual students’ needs:
1. Permit the use of reference materials when creating each map.
2. Simplify the requirements for the final product.
3. Simplify the requirements for the homework assignment.
Lesson/Activity 2: Departure

Standards: Massachusetts State General Standard: Poetry 14.3, 14.4
Rhode Island C&G 5 (5-6) - 1, C&G 5 (7-8) - 1

Performance Objective(s): Students will demonstrate knowledge of the impact of trade on immigration and culture, specifically as expressed through the ballad of Eugenio Tavares.

Materials needed: copy of ballad and translation, BBC radio broadcast, paper, highlighters, pencils
Link to BBC radio program website: http://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/b00mm08f#p0071mmz
Link to Eugenio Tavares Morna of Farewell: http://dare.uva.nl/document/131464

Time Needed: One or two class periods

Detailed Procedure:

Step 1 – Copy the translation of the ‘Morna of Farewell’ on the board, instruct students to copy the text onto the left side of a sheet of lined paper, leaving the right column for their annotations.

Step 2a – Play BBC Radio program, the key segments are Chapter 4 (7.08) Morna, Batuque and Eugenio Tavares and the first section of Chapter 5. Pass out copies of the ‘Morna of Farewell’ as originally written along with the translation. Read along as it is sung on the BBC broadcast.

Step 2b - Discuss: How does the music echo the writer’s sentiments?

Step 2c Read the English translation of the ‘Morna of Farewell’ aloud.

Step 2d - Instruct students to use the right side of their paper for annotations. Since we will be working with a translation, we will not analyze sound devices or rhyme scheme. Instruct students to identify and note symbols and figurative language. In addition they are to circle parts of the poem that are confusing and write their questions in the notation column.

Step 2e – Instruct students to determine the poem’s theme and highlight the lines that illustrate and support the theme.

Step 3 – Whole Class Annotations: Students add one of their annotations to the board, then pass the marker to another student.

4. Research the Ernestina schooner and Charles Morgan whale ship and their connections to Cape Verdeans.
5. Compose a farewell poem that includes anticipation of reunion.
6. Explore the Claridade literary movement
7. Research other Cape Verdean musicians: the Tavares Brothers, Ivo Pires, Norberto Tavares
8. Research the Morna and the impact of Tavares music
9. Research Tavares’ reference to slavery and the history of Cape Verdes
10. Write poem incorporating sensory impressions as song sung at Furna dock in calm waters of harbor in Brava, while loved ones boarded ships for America, provide: dock images, music sounds, ship pictures, fiddle and guitar, couples dancing, dawn, last dance before departure.

Modifications:
1. Provide students with a figurative language chart
2. Provide students with
Lesson/Activity 3: Characteristics of Cape Verdean Immigrants

Standards:

Performance Objectives: Students will be able to relate ways in which the character traits of the Cape Verdean people, as they moved beyond their original geographic borders, has impacted the economic, political, religious, and cultural ideas of the Blackstone Valley and our region.

Step 1 – As a class, define character traits as descriptive adjectives that denote qualities of a person. In literature, these may be stated directly or seen through a characters’ actions.

Step 2a – Students work singly or in pairs to create action/character trait chart for five inductees. The inductee’s name is listed at the top; the left hand column is labeled, ‘actions’, and the right hand column, ‘traits the actions reveal’.

Step 2b - They read over each biography and make notations on their chart. They include every action described in the biography and the character traits revealed by those actions. Think specifically of attitudes toward, separation, risk, work, family, home, others, sacrifice, etc.

Step 2c – Students circle the three character traits that appear the most frequently on each chart.

Step 3 – Students repeat this process for four more inductees.

Step 4 – Post a sheet of chart paper with each inductees name. Under each inductees name, students list the three most frequent character traits revealed by their actions.

Step 5- Create a tally of the top five character traits that may have led to the inductees inclusion in the Hall of Fame.

Homework reflection: How does character impact community? Give examples from this exercise.

Lesson/Activity #4 Focus on Ongoing Cape Verdean Contributions: Knitting Mill

Standards: Rhode Island C&G 5 (5-6) 2, (7-8) 2

Performance Objective(s): Students will demonstrate knowledge of working conditions in turn of the century mills in Pawtucket, RI and contemporary standards at the Northeast Knitting Mill. They will consider the competing interests of mill workers and mill owners and governmental interest

Materials: photographs of interior of two mills, photo analysis sheets,

Time Needed:

Detailed Procedure:

1. Compare two images for mood, setting. Use photo analysis sheets photo analysis titles, study color, comp., main idea, character, detail, audience, message.
2. Introduce legal issues and conflict of interest Changes in regulations, products, advertising; international via websites versus broadsides and newspaper adds.
3. Question How are some issues (social, technological, geographical, economical, cultural) beneficial to some people and harmful to others?
   Image and audience: LOC image of mill interior with dust and child labor compare to pristine, colorful image of Northeast Knitting

Extensions:

1. Research cotton mills in Pawtucket – can the mill be identified?
2. Compare the Northeast Knitting Mills Website design to old mill adds.

Modifications:

Resources:

2. Discussion of Child Labor regulations http://eh.net/encyclopedia/article/whaples.childlabor
